A Great Day for the Hogans

A New England Mutual agent ANSWERS SOME QUESTIONS about

why I left a good job to sell life insurance

WHEN A MAN MAJORS in chemistry in college, how will he get along in life insurance? Let's look at Horace "Tink" Olmsted, Lafayette '39. After using his chemical training as a technical salesman in industry, he joined New England Mutual in Pittsburgh only two years ago. Today he's a member of our Leaders' Association and is knocking at the door of the Million Dollar Round Table. Any college course can be a good foundation for life insurance. The success of over 900 college-trained New England Mutual agents proves this to be a fact.

The NEW ENGLAND

MUTUAL  Life Insurance Company of Boston

THE COMPANY THAT FOUNDED MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE IN AMERICA—1835

What did you do before you got into life insurance?

"For six years I was a technical salesman for a big chemical company. They sent me to Pittsburgh as district representative. Then in 1952 I joined New England Mutual."

Being a district representative sounds pretty good. Why did you leave?

"Well, it was a good job, but I was tired of taking orders from a distance. I had too much responsibility with too little authority. And, of course, my family and I had to live where the company wanted us. All in all, I wasn't too happy about my job."

Does life insurance give you what you want?

"I'll say it does. I'm my own boss. I can live where I want, choose my clients, and earn as much as my ability will let me. The training courses at New England Mutual have given me a professional education. And, on top of all this, life insurance gives me the chance to do some real good in the world."

How can I tell if life insurance is for me?

"The Company has a proved selection process for determining your aptitude and will tell you frankly what your chances are for success. Write Vice President L. M. Huppeler, 501 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass., if you are interested. No obligation will be implied, either way. Or, if you prefer, send first for the booklet below."

ALUMNI HALL

A Great Day for the Hogans

It's not every commencement that sees two Alumni honored by their own college for exemplary service in their life's work. And surely it will never happen again that the honorary degree-winners will bear the same surname! Rear Admiral Bartholomew Hogan, '23 after a distinguished career as a Navy doctor was recently named Surgeon General of the Navy; Dr. Edward A. Hogan, '30, after having been the youngest dean of an accredited law school—University of San Francisco in 1935—moved on to the University of California as Vice Dean of their Hastings Law School. In 1941, St. Mary's College of California made him an honorary LL.D. And the day after B. C. honored Admiral Hogan, Tufts did the same with another Doctor of Science. Last year Villanova had given him his first D. Sc.

More power to the well-honored Hogans!

ALUMNI DAY

Pictures by John Murphy

Some 1500 loyal sons of B. C. are not apt to forget this day soon.

Memorable items:

The unsatisfactory nature of Our Lady's Terrace for kneeling purposes.

The eye-patches of the 40 thieves of '20.

The massed pop-gun salutes of '30's coonskinned Davy Crocketts.

The unveiling of the bronze memorial to the late beloved Jack Ryder.

The humble, moving acceptance by John Doyle, '99, of the McKenney Medal.

The earnest proposal of Bernie McManus, '05, to Father Rector that 20 pushups morning and night make all the difference.

The Jaguar of '45.

The evening buffet on the Library lawn, rain and all.

Sanctus—Sanctus—Sanctus: Rev. George T. Eberle, S.J., '05, Weston College, formerly professor at Boston College, celebrates Mass for deceased Alumni on Our Lady's Terrace behind Alumni Hall.

New York Attorney John B. Doyle, '99, founder (in 1905) of the B.C. Club of N.Y., receives the William F. McKenney Medal from Bob Glennon, '34 as Joe McKenney, '27 and Father Rector look on.

Father Fleming, executive assistant to Father Rector, listens as a point is made by John Collins, '04 and Edward Giblin, '05, at the Rector's reception for the '05 Jubilarians.

"Early bird" John Collins, '04 of Lynn, at ease waiting for the business meeting to begin.

Tots and Teens of '30.

Classmate for classmate: Father John Ryan, '30 distributes communion to the families of '30.

Tense Moment, Fathers vs. Sons: Is it a hit?

THE FAMILY was the theme of '30's Class Day on May 28: The campus was alive with tots, some barely able to toddle, and teens, many of whom have now enrolled themselves in classes from '56 to '60. There was a balloon-blowing contest and a carousel and a pony-ride for the little ones; races and a ball-game for the older lads and lasses.

And other families and other sons and daughters will bless '30 in days to come—the generous class gift, $13,000 will benefit many.

Round and Round it goes and where it stops...

They huffed and they puffed...

The Queen and her ladies-in-waiting.

All in favor say "Aye."

Two alumni, one old, one new, who played principal roles on Commencement Day, wave welcome to the crowd.

COMMENCEMENT '55

One thousand and twenty-four new alumni were added to the rolls June 8th when Archbishop Cushing distributed sheepskins from the eight schools of Boston College. The ceremonies, threatened by rain, were held at Boston Garden instead of Alumni Field. Five honorary degrees were granted for "service to college and community": Doctor of Science to Rear Admiral Bartholomew W. Hogan, '23, U.S. Navy Surgeon General; Doctor of Laws to Edward A. Hogan, Jr., '30, Vice-Dean of Hastings Law School, University of California, who also gave the Commencement address; Frederick J. Driscoll, N. Y. Contractor; Governor Christian A. Herter, and Major John B. Hynes.

Father Rector announced gifts to B.C. of over $400,000. The largest: $150,000 for the School of Education from the Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr. Foundation.

Take Up the Sword of the Spirit,
That Is the Word of God.

The Archbishop chose a militant theme for his remarks reminding the new graduates that "a war calls you". Here is part of his talk:

Be warriors, warriors for your faith and moral principles. Be apostles. In Judea, in the time of Christ, you would have found yourselves among the disciples, the helpers of Peter, at the side of Mark and Stephen and Luke and Paul. But neither warrior nor apostle has ever lived a soft and easy life; austerity, a cheerfully accepted austerity, they have borne as a privilege and a badge of their dedication. God and Mammon, one must choose; and one must choose likewise between the things of God and the things of Mammon. . . What we need are men imbued with the spirit, the spirit of St. Francis of Assisi, probably the most human reproduction of Christ the world has known. Only such men can get a hearing today and lead the world.

Boston, for Boston, the words of your college anthem salute the college that has given you so much to make you different, to make you divest yourselves of self and to become great leaders. But the real Boston, the City of Boston, whose first citizen and Mayor extraordinary is now a brother alumnus, must also be fair Boston, always and in every detail of its life. To make some tiny spot in it better and to keep it so, is your task. Get at the task immediately. Do not procrastinate. Become part of fair Boston. Make your presence there felt, your leadership wanted and prized.

"Ense petit placidam sub libertate quietem." This is the motto of our beloved Commonwealth, whose first citizen and highly esteemed Governor, is now another brother alumnus. Freely translated it means, "By the sword we seek peace but peace only under liberty." May that sword be the sword of Truth so that there may be raised here no other sword of contention or of partisan strife, but only the sword of the Spirit with which you are equipped as a result of the education you received at Boston College. For Boston, for Massachusetts, for Country and for the World go forth to battle with that sword unsheathed and may the blessings of Almighty God be with you.

7000 guests of the 1024 graduates of '55 crowded Boston Garden for Commencement exercises.

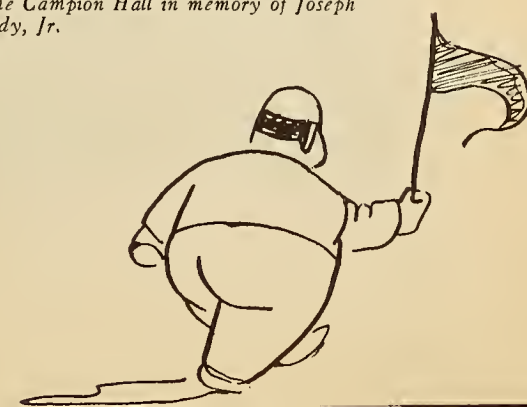

Honorary degree recipients with Archbishop Cushing and Father Rector; back, Rear Admiral Bartholomew H. Hogan, '23, Doctor of Science; Edward A. Hogan, Jr., '30, LL.D.; Frederick J. Driscoll, LL.D.; front, Governor Christian A. Herter, LL.D.; Mayor John B. Hynes, LL.D.

$410,000 was contributed to the College in '55, reported Father Rector at Commencement. The largest gift, $150,000, came from the Kennedy Foundation and presented by Edward M. Kennedy shown here with Father Rector. By way of saying thanks, the new Education Building became Campion Hall in memory of Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr.

Captain Walter L. Mayo, Jr., '50 pins Lieutenant's bars on his brother Hugh J. Mayo, '55, while Walter L. Mayo, Sr., '23 looks on. Walter, Jr., was a Korean War prisoner; Walter, Sr., was formerly music director at Boston College.

Heading for the morning session in the Library: Frank Sawyer, Checker Taxi Co. president; William Keesler, 1st vice-president, First National Bank; Arthur Kelly, vice-president of R. H. White; and James Fairclough, vice-president of Jordan Marsh.

For Boston, For Boston

General John C. McManmon gives rapt attention to a post-luncheon speaker.

The deep concentration of the gentlemen to the left was no exception: 499 other top Boston executives, politicians and students listened just as hard before they went home thinking from the 2nd Annual Conference on Boston's Economic Problems sponsored by the Boston College Business School on May 19. This conference, evidently due to be an annual event, capped a series of 6 "citizens' " seminars from September to April, that had tapped Dame Boston's reflexes on a score of sore points: traffic and taxes, shipping and slums, city costs and city planning and the city's part in the "tragic mess" that the State's fiscal system is in.

This last bit about the "mess" is quoted from someone who should know: Doctor (B.C. '55 hon.) & Governor Christian Herter. And just as the Governor and every other of dozens of responsible Boston citizens pulled no punches in the seminars so the 30 participants (see pages 14-15) of the May 19th Conference called spades spades.

"Boston needs new tax money badly," stated Mayor Hynes. "Yet Boston property is overtaxed about $40 millions," said Boston Realtor Philip H. Theobald. "Regional planning must be begun without delay to meet the competition of younger metropolitan areas," said Planning Director Charles E. Downe. "Build the Boston Common Underground garage now, else downtown merchants stand to lose a lot of customers," warned Retailer P. A. O'Connell. "Let's have greater creativeness in sales and promotion," asked Editor Edward C. Bursk. "Philadelphia changed its obsolescent form of city government," reported Philadelphia ad-man H. A.

Austin J. Tobin, Executive Director of the Port of New York Authority, speaks on the handling of big municipal projects during the morning session.

Regional Planning panel included Charles E. Downe, director of the Planning Division, Mass. Dept. of Commerce; Carl J. Gilbert, vice-president of Gillette's; Francis B. Gummere, secretary, Filene's; and Robert H. Ryan, executive vice-president, Mass. Business Development Corp.

The Second Boston Conference

Batten. "And Pittsburgh has pulled itself up by the bootstraps," added Pittsburgh businessman Leland Hazard.

This looking Boston's problems in the eye can't help but lead to constructive changes. The Herald editorial (after the January seminar) put it well:

At Boston College the other afternoon . . . was something of the essence of the city's existence—the professional men, the leaders of business, industry and labor, the officials of government. . . . And it was suddenly borne in on us: This is part of a revolution that is quietly taking place in Boston . . . The citizens are taking over . . . For the first time there can be an intelligent optimism about the city's future, for the city has at last what it takes to go places.

10-minute break: cross-section of the 500 attendants who were themselves a selected cross-section of Boston's economic life.

Boston Conference

Luncheon Conference: P. A. O'Connell, President, E. T. Slattery Co., Father Rector, Governor Herter, Geoffrey Smith, President, Girard Trust Corn Exchange Bank, Philadelphia, Frederick Hagemann, Jr., President Rockland-Atlas National Bank, Boston.

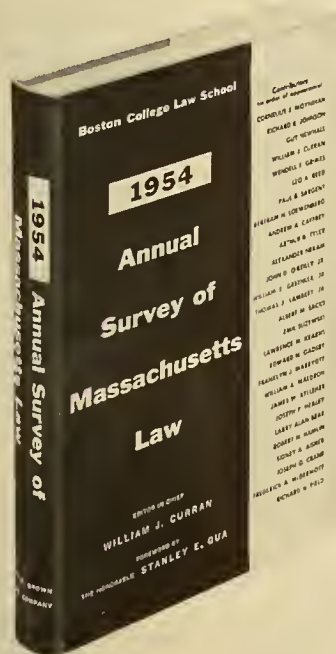

Active participants in the conference: Thomas Carens and Thomas Dignan of Boston Edison Co., and Carl Gilbert, vice-president and treasurer of Gillette's.

Some of the audience have lived through Boston's problems; some are looking forward to grappling day.

Professor William J. Curran presents a copy of the Survey to Governor Herter. Present also are Representative John P. McMorro and Student Editor Frank J. McGee.

The Law School Surveys Mass. Law

Governor Christian A. Herter, Chief Justice Stanley E. Qua of the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts, Associate Justice Felix Frankfurter of the Supreme Court of the United States, and leading members of the bench and bar in and out of New England have all heaped congratulation on the Law School on the publication of its first volume of the Annual Survey of Massachusetts Law. And the publication of the Annual Survey, under the direction of Professor William J. Curran and Student Editor-in-Chief Frank J. McGee, got good press, too. For instance, said the Boston Globe, April 16:

GOOD JOB

The students and faculty of Boston College Law School have made a definite contribution to the whole Commonwealth by preparing an annual law survey for Massachusetts. Like service is being done for seven other states by law schools within their borders, but this is the first such volume to be published here.

It is a handy book, made up of material collected by the students and compiled by the faculty, with the assistance of leading attorneys. Its contents include last year's opinions of the Supreme Judicial Court and the Attorney General, new administrative rules and regulations, and all legislation of statewide interest, or affecting Boston, which was passed or considered in 1954.

From now on, this survey and its annual successors will give citizens of Massachusetts quick access to about everything legal that has happened in the state. B. C. Law School is to be congratulated for initiating a service which should quickly become an established institution.

The Annual Survey has a two-fold purpose. It is of substantial assistance to the busy judge and practitioner who cannot afford the many hundreds of hours of study necessary to acquire the information and the insight contained within the 350 pages of the Survey. Yet it is not a mere digest of legal events and opinions. Rather, the Survey is a selective screening and critical commentary on the significant developments, changes and proposals in the law of the Commonwealth.

A secondary purpose but one of great importance to the Law School, is that it affords to outstanding students the opportunity of a valuable training in legal analysis, independent thinking and critical writing. The work of the Survey staff is intended to develop an editorial tradition in the Law School. It gives the student editors an opportunity, even placement opportunities, by reason of their close collaboration with the outstanding practitioners at the bar in the Commonwealth.

New Dorms rise—ready for 250 students come September

ALUMNI ROUND-UP

Special to Veterans World War I

If you have a Sam Brown Belt and a sabre, and want them worn by B. C. Cadet officers; call Lt. Col. Royal E. McShea, DE 2-3200 Ext. 271 or write him c/o the College.

FR. STEPHEN A. SHEA MEDAL—Established by the Class of 1942 CBA to be awarded annually for excellence in philosophical studies as a Memorial to Rev. Stephen A. Shea, S. J. Professor of Philosophy who died in December 1952. Arthur L. Curry, right, President of 1942 CBA, Thomas F. McDonald, centre, secretary-treasurer, present scroll to Mrs. Ellen Shea, mother of Father Shea. Edward J. Fitzgerald CBA '55 was the first recipient of the medal.

Enrollment UP; New Dorms.

Rev. Edmund D. Walsh, S.J., Director of Admissions, and his staff, have been busy for months processing over 3000 applications for admission to the various Colleges on University Heights. Applicants from 14 states, from Formosa, China, Puerto Rico and Venezuela have been accepted for entrance in September. Some 65 sons and 18 daughters of Alumni will follow in their fathers' footsteps. Scholarships aid has been granted to 135 applicants. During the school year Father Walsh and his staff visited 250 high schools. In areas outside Massachusetts alumni generously assisted Father Walsh; Charles Sexton, '50 appeared at Career days in Buffalo, New York; Thomas Cudmore, '40 in Albany, New York; Henry Barry, '26 and Frederic Gannon, '27 in New York City; Joseph Loscocco, '43 in New Jersey; Eugene Bertolli, '44 in Connecticut. Rev. Patrick Collins, S.J., '23 formerly assistant Dean CBA now of the America staff, continued to work in the New York area.

The completion of the new dormitories, Xavier, Loyola, and Claver, will provide on campus boarding facilities for 400 students. 100 Freshmen have already been assigned rooms in the new dormitories.

New Business School Dean

Dr. Donald J. White, '44, has been appointed Associate Dean of the College of Business Administration. Dr. White, presently an associate professor of Economics and faculty member since 1946, will assume his new duties with the opening of the fall term in September.

Author of THE NEW ENGLAND FISHING INDUSTRY, a study in wage and price setting, Dr. White has also served as a member of the American Arbitration Association and United States Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. He has been a member of the Holy Name Speakers' Bureau since 1948, and from July 1945 to February 1946, served as a member of the US Treasury Department's Foreign Funds Control in Germany as a special investigator.

Alumni Hall

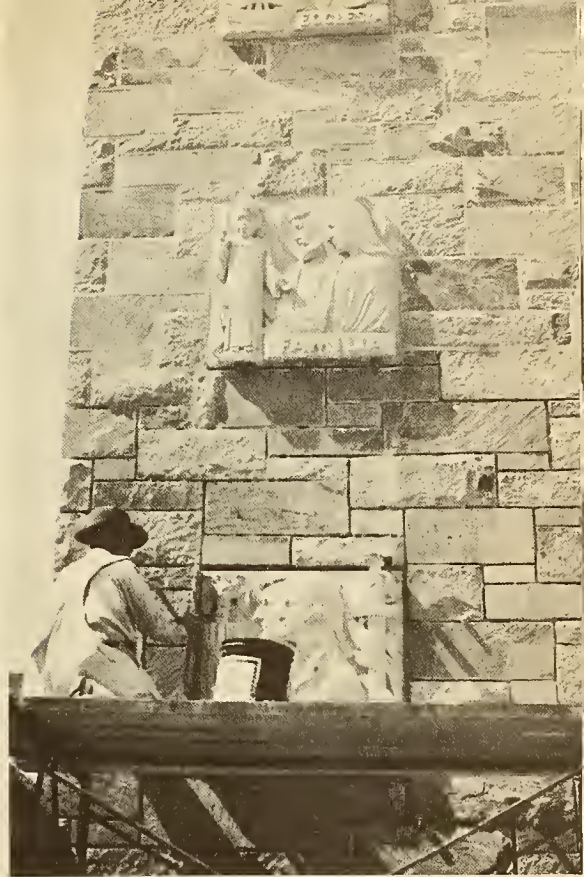

Robert T. Griffin, '39 and his able committee kept the Hall busy from September to June, with Football pictures, Saturday night dances, class reunions and special committee meetings.

At special buffet suppers Rev. Daniel Linehan, S.J., took a group to the Magnetic North Pole and Rev. George V. McCabe S. J., pictured the Jesuit's life entrance to ordination.

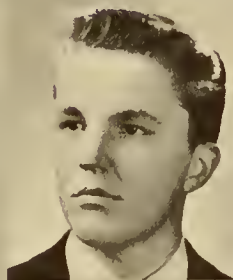

The Wednesday Football pictures shown by Mike Holovak, '43 during the fall, drew increasingly larger crowds. And the Saturday night dances, music by Guy Ormandy, still provide the younger alumni with relaxation and recreation.

Classes from 1911 to 1954 held their reunions here; Committees from the Anniversary classes met frequently to make plans for their celebration.

N. B. Alumni Hall now available to B.C. graduates for wedding and ordination receptions.

B. G. School of Education nears completion.

Laetare Scholars, '55

1500 Alumni at the Heights, and hundreds of others all over the world, gathered for the Laetare Communion Breakfast, May 19. Each one contributed a little over and above the tariff: the proceeds, $1900 this year, helped swell the Laetare Scholarship Fund to $4,300. Within a few years it is hoped the Fund will reach $10,000 so that full scholarships can be granted; meanwhile, $2,000 has been distributed in small gifts to 10 Laetare Scholars, 5 this year.

It's a noble notion, this Laetare Fund: the recipients in many cases might have had to forego college without this financial boost—two of this year's winners, for instance, come from families of 8 and 10 persons. And all of the winners bring gifts of value in return:

Three are members of the National Honor Society, all are gold-medal students.

One is a published poet, and prize-winner in a national contest as well as a Science Fair exhibitor.

One was active in no less than 22 extra-curricular and community activities.

One is a classicist and a football player!

Would that the grants to these youngsters was 10 times the size that the present limited Fund would allow!

The Jack Ryder Memorial unveiled on Alumni Day, June 4.

S P O R T S

Jack Ryder Honored

The late beloved Jack Ryder was immortalized in a bronze plaque presented to Boston College by the Jack Ryder Track Club on Alumni Day, June 4 before 1,000 alumni and friends. Joseph Ingoldsby '27 President of the Track Club made the presentation. As the plaque was unveiled by Richard Hasenfus, the artist, son of Nat Hasenfus '22, Mrs. John A. Ryder widow of the coach, was presented a bouquet of roses by Thomas Cavanaugh '26, Co-chairman of the committee. Rev. Maurice J. Dulles, S.J., Faculty Moderator of Athletics, conducted the dedication ceremony. Present were the entire Ryder family, Very Rev. Joseph R. N. Maxwell, S.J., Rev. Maurice J. J. Dullea, S.J., Faculty Moderator of the Faculty, John Curley, Graduate Manager of Athletics, Frank Jones, Trainer, William Gilligan '40, Track Coach, Vice-president, Thomas F. Cavanaugh '26, Treasurer and Co-chairman, Benedict T. Hines, '37, Secretary, and Joseph E. Ingoldsby President of the Track Club and many of the late coach's pupils.

A limited number of strong competitors gave B.C. a creditable two and four record for the Spring track meets. Captain Pat Lochiatto and plucky Bob McAllister headed this spirited group. The eagle leg-men won decisively over Providence College and Holy Cross but lost to Rhode Island, Tufts, Maine and Providence in a second meeting. Besides Lochiatto and McAllister, Jim Canty, Hugh Mayo and George Morrissey departed with degrees this June. Jim Murnane was elected Captain of the 1955-56 squad. Murnane had considerable success this year, particularly in the middle distances.

Homecoming Features '55 Football

A potentially strong senior team will represent B. C. on the gridiron in 1955. Led by mammoth John Miller, 1955 Captain-elect, the Eagles stand to be one of the East top grid powers.

The schedule features a Homecoming on September 24 at the Heights against Brandeis University. Villanova, Detroit and Marquette will be here (at Fenway Park), on successive weekends. The Villanova fray will be televised from Maine to Maryland on Saturday afternoon, October 8. The Detroit and Marquette games will be night contests on October 15 and October 22.

Another visit to Xavier's campus in Cincinnati comes on Oct. 29; the Orange Bowl contest with the University of Miami on Friday night, November 4. Boston University and Holy Cross round out the schedule in Boston, B.U. on November 19, and Holy Cross on November 26.

A host of veteran backs should be available again. Halfback Tom Magnarelli Reis, the boy who crossed the Holy Cross goal line four times last November heads this list. Tom, incidentally, has legally changed his name to Thomas Reis, after his foster parents.

Eddie DeSilva and Emiddio Petrarca, the West Warwick, R. I., backs continued to shine in the spring sessions and Tom Joe Sullivan moved the ball well. Henry Sullivan and Billy Donlan, both masters of the T-formation during the off-season drills, will probably be used alternately this Fall.

Young "Boots" Connolly, Billy Alves, another Monk Maznicki product, Arlington's Don Seagar and Somerville's Larry Plenty are other fast frosh.

Fullback Dick Gagliardi and halfback Jim Tiernan returned to the end squad, giving much needed depth at that position: Emerson Dickie, Dick Lucas and Frank Furey were the only veteran ends returning.

Dick Myles has moved to tackle, joining Capt. Miller, Frank Cousineau, John Doherty, Dick Pearce and Joe Gabis.

Bertolini and St. Pierre head the list of guards backed up by Tony Quintiliani and Paul Sullivan, a varsity regular a couple of years back, is returning to the Heights after a tour of military service. Little Lenny Andrusaitis, who did such an excellent job in both the B.U. and Holy Cross games, returns to the center position. Taunton's Frank Gallagher will give Lenny a tussle for the post.

Baseball—B.C. Runner-up in '55

The season's record — twelve wins, seven losses, one tie — was worthy of second place in the Greater Boston Collegiate Baseball League (Harvard the winner), and an invitation to play in the NCAA District playoffs at Springfield. BC was nosed out by Springfield College 4-3 the first night. The Eagle nine won eight of eleven games in the local college league, lost two, one to Harvard, one to B.U. The season's lone tie was an 8-8 affair that went 13 innings with M.I.T.

Sophomore pitcher Ed Buckley was a mainstay for the Eagles. His recording eight wins against two losses was highlighted by his final effort of shutting out rival Holy Cross 4-0.

Buckley, Captain Bobby Flanagan and Jack Scannell were named to the annual League All Star team. Scannell was the second baseman chosen and Flanagan for the third straight year was voted the utility infielder. Center fielder Bernie Teliszewski was voted honorable mention on the team.

Paul Carey, who took over the catching chores early in the season, was elected Captain for the 1956 season.

Alumni Day at the Heights was spoiled by HC's 7-2 win over BC. But, the Eagles came back to ruin the Worcester Alumni Day with a 9-4 win behind the five-hit pitching of Buckley.

Sports Roundup

Jimmy Kane, four years BC's number one quarterback, received a commission in the Army Reserve this June....he'll be married this June....Tom Casey, reserve pitcher on this year's ball team, also was commissioned in the Army Reserve....Marines Corps Reserve commissions went to footballers Tom Izbicki, Dave Keelan, Frank Marr, John McDonnell, Frank Morze, John Regan, and Joe Mattaliano....track man Hugh Mayo also joined the new Marine officers....another outstanding BC athlete picked up his degree this June — Bobby Flanagan, the baseball captain who is also remembered as a great BC end before injury put him on the sidelines in his sophomore season....Dino Martin's graduation losses include Captain Phil Powell, Tom Cullinane, Tom Aldrich and Lou Shurtleff....Also graduated was a golfer you'll continue to hear about, Ben Murphy.

B. C. CLUBS

Judge Daniel M. Keyes, '39, presenting Gold Key plaque to Philip J. Callan, '25, retiring president of the Springfield Club.

North Shore

The B. C. Club of the North Shore held their annual Communion Breakfast on Sunday, May 22 with Mass celebrated at the Immaculate Conception Church, Salem, and breakfast following at the Hawthorne Hotel. Rev. Martin Harney, S.J., History Professor at the Heights was the guest speaker. Chairman of the Breakfast was Richard E. Daly, '51, CBA, and committee members included T. Kenneth Connelly, '49, and Leonard C. Sherry, '48, Dr. John V. Cunney, '35, is club president.

Oregon

Latest affiliate is the Boston College Club of Oregon, and the first activity sponsored by the Western Alumni was a Communion Breakfast on Laetare Sunday in the Campus Commons faculty dining room of the University of Portland.

Officers elected are: Charles H. Savage, Jr., '42 CBA, president; Francis E. Harrington, L'35, and James H. Hagan, '43 CBA, vice-presidents; James F. Russell, Jr., '44, recording secretary; Robert J. Harrington, '39, treasurer; John J. Higgins, L'52; Sergeant-at-Arms; Rev. Walter W. Goff, C.S.C., '35.

Philadelphia

Donald R. McMorrow, '45, was chairman of the Laetare Communion Breakfast held at St. Joseph's College with Mass celebrated by Rev. Matthew G. Sullivan, S.J.

At that time Club members voted to re-elect the entire slate of officers for the coming year. Paul K. Lambert, '44, is president; Donald R. McMorrow, '45, vice-president; Leo P. Moran, '30, secretary; Roland F. Shea, '54 treasurer.

An informal meeting was held at the home of Leo Moran recently and plans were made for an even more active participation in Club affairs by the Alumni in Pennsylvania.

San Francisco

William F. Hamrock, '45, George F. Clinton, '38, and John F. Roarke, '41, were the committee in charge of the Laetare Communion Breakfast of the Northern California Alumni. As usual, the Alumni of Holy Cross participated in this activity. Over the May 30 weekend a family picnic was held at Tilden Park in Berkeley.

Club members congratulate president, Edward A. Hogan, Jr., '30, who was awarded an honorary LL. D., by the College at Commencement on June 8.

Springfield

The Springfield Club highlight affair was the testimonial dinner tendered to retiring president Philip J. Callan, '25, on May 26. President Callan was presented with an honorary membership in the Gold Key Society in recognition of his "service and sacrifice" for Boston College through the years. The club also announced the establishment of a Philip J. Callan Scholarship.

Robert W. Coughlin, '48, was chairman of the dinner.

At the Annual Communion Breakfast of the Club held in April the principal speaker was Rev. James W. Ring, S.J., of the faculty.

Newly-elected officers are: John J. Phelan, '42, president; George H. Keefe, '22, vice-president; Paul Rossi, '48, secretary; John J. Bradley, '49, treasurer.

Washington, D. C.

The annual election night meeting and smoker of the Boston College Club of Washington, was held on Tuesday night, May 24, at the Touchdown Club in Washington, D.C. This was the final meeting of a very successful year under the leadership of Dr. Eugene J. McDonald, '33, President of the Club. The social activities of the Club included a dinner in the fall and a cocktail party later in the season. Communion Breakfast on Laetare Sunday was well attended. The club's participation in the annual All-Jesuit Alumni Dinner which was held in Washington this year, and, at which the major address was given by the Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles, provided a fitting climax to the year's activities. Throughout the year luncheons were held on the last Tuesday of every month at the Touchdown Club which is managed by Albert Fiorentino, '43. These luncheons have been discontinued for the summer but will be resumed in the fall. The following officers were elected:

President, Charles F. B. McAleer, '44; vice-president, Henry G. Beauregard, '36; secretary-treasurer, Anthony J. Perry, '26; Chaplain, Rev. Joseph Teltchea, '39.

West Roxbury

The West Roxbury Club sponsored a debate between the Fulton Debating Society and the School of Nursing at the Library Hall in West Roxbury on April 13. The subject, "Resolved that American Women Demand Too Much of their Husbands" was not only timely, interesting, and well presented, but was enthusiastically received by the audience. The chairman of the evening was the club president Nathaniel J. Hasenfus, '22, who presented Anne McKenney and Diane Withrow of the Co-eds and Hugh Mulligan and Donald Smith of the Fulton. Following the Debate, Joseph Creedon, '47, was host to the speakers, the faculty advisor Fr. Paul McManus, S.J., and officers of the club. The chairman of the Nominating Committee, after conference with his Committee, requested that the same officers remain in command for another year.

Worcester

The Boston College Club of Worcester County has been organized and the following officers elected: Paul L. Schultz, '38, Boylston, president; Beavan J. McGady, '23, Worcester, vice-president; Robert H. Fouhy, '50, Shrewsbury, secretary-treasurer; Robert C. Maher, '42 CBA, Worcester, director of programs.

During the past few months the Club has held a Sports Night with Alumni Secretary Bill Flynn as speaker; a Communion Breakfast at which addresses were given by Rt. Rev. Timothy B. O'Connell, '29, Worcester diocesan vice-officials, and Rev. Thomas F. Fleming, S.J., executive assistant to the president of the College, with Most Rev. John J. Wright, '31, Bishop of Worcester, celebrating the private Mass preceding the Breakfast, and a "Wives Night" combined with a reception to Bishop Wright and the new officers.

Berkshires

Past president of the Club, Senator Silvio Conte, '49, presided at a May 8 meeting held at the home of Mayor Robert T. Capeless, L'41 of Pittsfield at which William J. Broderick, '51, was elected president for the coming year. Richard Drennan, '50, of Pittsfield was elected vice-president, and Robert J. Donelan, '43, of Great Barrington was elected secretary-treasurer.

At the Laetare Communion Breakfast which was well attended, the guest speaker was Rev. Francis O. Corcoran, S.J., rector of Shadowbrook.

A summer outing is planned at the home of Frank Limont, '17 in Becket, and in the fall the Club plans a series of panel discussions on subjects of interest to a Catholic College graduate.

Central New York

Very Rev. Joseph R. N. Maxwell, S.J., was tendered a reception by Central New York Alumni at the Bellevue County Club, Syracuse, on May 5. He was accompanied by Alumni Secretary Bill Flynn. President Robert V. O'Hara, L'51, was assisted on the committee by Michael F. Finn, '32, Edward J. Hart, '37, Joseph A. Walsh, '37.

Chicago

The Chicago Club held a picnic on May 1 at Wallace Carroll's, '28, new country home in Lake Forest—LeWafarm, with Father Rector and Bill Flynn among the guests. The affair was such a success that the group plans similar informal affairs in the future according to President Bob Moore, '44 CBA.

Cincinnati

The Laetare Communion Breakfast was attended by more than half the membership of the Cincinnati Club, and was a huge success, with Paul P. Kane, '49, president, heading the committee for the affair.

Election of officers will be held in the fall at which time plans will be made for a welcome to the football team arriving in town for the B.C.—Xavier game.

Connecticut

Mario Guarcello, '41, of Bridgeport was in charge of arrangements for the Communion Breakfast held on Laetare

Sunday at Fairfield University. President of the Connecticut group is Dr. Timothy L. Curran, '34, Hartford.

Denver

Until an election of officers can be held in the fall, Francis A. Smith, '40, 2872 South Grape Way, Denver, will be the acting president of the Colorado Club. He is presently secretary of the group, and is taking over for president Kevin Burke, '50, who has been transferred to New York City.

Florida

The first meeting of the newly organized Boston College Club of Florida was held on March 18. Joseph L. Delaney, '44, was elected president and J. Frank Martin, '50, CBA, is secretary-treasurer.

Lawrence

Greater Lawrence B.C. Club held its annual Communion and Breakfast Laetare Sunday, March 20, 1955. Mass was celebrated at St. Patrick's Church by Reverend George P. Gallivan, B.C., '30, and breakfast was enjoyed at St. Patrick's High School Hall.

The feature Speaker was Reverend James W. Ring, S.J., of the College, whose excellent remarks were enthusiastically received. The gathering was also addressed by its host, Rt. Reverend Monsignor Edmund D. Daly, B.C. '99, and Reverend Francis J. Dinan, B.C. '29 also attended.

Lowell

Lowell graduates of the Class of 1955 were the honored guests at the annual June Dinner of the Club held on June 9, with Rev. William J. Kennealy, S.J., Dean of the Law School as the principal speaker.

Rev. Francis B. McManus, S.J., CBA Dean of Men, was the speaker at the Laetare Communion Breakfast in March. At the business meeting following the breakfast the following Alumni were elected to office: President, Thaddeus T. Kosciolk, '32; vice-president, John Fleming, '45; secretary, Paul J. Hoar, '45; treasurer, Martha A. Doyle, '50 School of Nursing, Directors are: John J. Gardner, '19; Frederick L. Cox, '54; John P. Flynn, '25; Ernest C. Sullivan, '39; Thomas P. Gill, '40.

Lower Merrimack Valley

John J. Lynch, '39, president of the Club reports a successful Communion Breakfast held on Laetare Sunday.

Lynn

The Lynn Club members have re-elected Paul Martin, '49, for another term as president, with George F. Laubner, '50, serving as first vice-president.

Alfred N. Weber, '47, was chairman of the Laetare Communion Breakfast and the guest speaker was Rev. William J. Kennealy, S. J.

An outing is tentatively planned for August.

New York City

The last affair of the New York Club held under the direction of retiring president Anthony A. Driscoll, '26, was a most enjoyable testimonial dinner given in honor of Father Maxwell at the Hotel Biltmore on May 12.

Newly elected officers are: Francis X. J. Donelan, '48, president; Jerome Doyle, '31, vice-president; Daniel W. Fay, '50, treasurer; Bernard F. Hurley, '51, secretary. On the Board of Governors are: John M. Harkins, '31; Joseph F. Rogers, '32; John P. McCarthy, '50.

All ten of us who attended Alumni Day had a wonderful time—Tom Gannon, Tom Hanron, Frank Murphy, Jim Kelley, John Curley, Owen McGaffigan, Ed Boucher, Joe Moloney, John Casey, Ray Henderson.

Your donations to the Alumni Fund have exceeded 1954 by 50% to date, but there are some who still have not donated. We are trying to reach $1,000—if you have not given, as yet, please send your check at your convenience.

'14 JOHN S. KEOHANE 1147 Tremont Street, Boston

Congratulations to Joe McKenney, '27 for his successful efforts as General Chairman of the Alumni Day Committee.

Our Class was happy to be joined by Joseph McHugh '12 of Bronxville New York the lone representative of his class. Joe is a true and loyal Alumnus.

Bishop MacKenzie, our Class President, has been elected a Director of the Volunteer Defenders Committee Inc., which has been doing an outstanding service to the needy.

Al Shaughnessy's son Al Jr. '49 is a 1st Lieutenant in the Army Air Force and has been stationed in Germany for the past three years. Al has just finished twelve years as Head-master of the Clarence R. Edwards Junior High School in Charlestown.

Jim Dunbar who completed his twenty-fourth year as Head-master of the James J. Chittick School advises that his daughter Denyse received her Degree from Regis College June 14.

Tom and Mrs. O'Hare left May 11 for a tour through Africa then overland through Italy, Spain, Portugal and France ending up at London whence they sailed for home June 14.

John Keohane's son, Lieutenant Frank X., received his Army Commission at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, May 3, and is now stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas. Laurence Keohane who graduated from Lawrence Academy, June 4, was President of his class.

Members of the class present at the Heights on Alumni Day enjoyed the festivities of our 40th anniversary of graduation under the leadership of Father Stephen Moran, John Lahive and John Walsh.

The day was saddened, however, with the memory of the recent loss of two of our classmates, Rt. Rev. Richard J. Quinlan, late pastor of St. John the Evangelist Parish, Winthrop, and John E. Burke of Peabody. We extend sincere sympathy to Monsignor Quinlan's sister, Loretta, and to John's wife and family.

'16 JAMES L. O'BRIEN 41 Pond Circle, Jamaica Plain

On Alumni Day, June 4, the class held a Memorial Mass for our late lamented classmate, Rt. Rev. Daniel Donovan at Our Lady of the Presentation Parish in Brighton where Monsignor McInnis is pastor.

All our deceased classmates were remembered at the Memorial Mass celebrated at 11 P.M., on Alumni Day as part of the day's program. Among them Jim Duffy. Jim's mother, Mrs. Mary Duffy, a venerable 97 years old, more recently crocheted a cincture which she presented to the College in Jim's memory. She is living at 16 Chatham Street, Cambridge.

We have heard that Bishop Feeney has not been too well lately, and we all pray for a quick recovery.

We feel that we should commend both Mrs. Jim Kenney and Mrs. Joe McOwen for sending gifts to the Alumni Fund in appreciation of Jim's and Joe's devotion to B. C.

'17 THOMAS D. CRAVEN 42 Mellen Street, Dorchester

About one dozen of the class responded to the call of Jack Flynn and were present at the College on Laetare Sunday. Among those present were: Joe Dee, Jack Doyle, Walter Durnan, Marty Higgins, Mose Murphy, Bunny O'Sullivan, Ralph Quinn, Bill Reid, Dr. Charley Smith and Paul Waters.

Ralph Quinn, announced arrival of grandson, Richard Ralph Hopkins, son of daughter, Barbara, Emmanuel '51 and Richard Hopkins, BS '51. The paternal grandfather is Tom Hopkins of '08.

Porky Flynn gathered one of our largest meetings at Alumni Hall on April 11th. Among those present were: Very Rev. William McCarthy, Fathers Maurice Dullea, S.J., Frank Flaherty, John Morrissey, Frank Quinn and Albert Shea. Among the group we spotted Joe Dee, Jack Doyle, Walter Durnan, Phil Dwyer, Frank Heanue, John Hennessey, Marty Higgins, Dr. Cy Lydon, Bo Mahoney, Jack Mahoney, Jack McCarty, Mose Murphy, Dan O'Connor, Bunny O'Sullivan, Ralph Quinn, Bill Reid, Les Shea, Dr. Charley Smith, Dr. Charley Twomey, Paul Waters and Bill Welch. The welcome sign was hung on two long absent members—Fr. John Morrissey, pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church, Roxbury and Dan O'Connor. This gathering was the first for Dan since graduation. He reminisced at great length on the football greats of the past including his experiences with Jim Thorpe in the old pro days.

George Holland's son, George, was ordained in Montreal in May and said his first Mass in the Cathedral in Worcester. He is assigned to that diocese.

Tom Printon's son, Paul, CBA '53, has recently been engaged.

The Class extends deepest sympathy to Charlie Fitzgerald and his family on the death of his wife. Remember her in your prayers.

Members of the Class on hand for Alumni Day at the Heights enjoyed a happy reunion.

1918 is doing well on the Alumni Fund Drive—keep up the good work.

'19 FRANCIS J. ROLAND
10 Homewood Rd., W. Roxbury

The members of the class extend their sincere sympathy to Bob Simmons on the death of his mother. All of us fondly remember Mr. and Mrs. Simmons as the most loyal rooters for the college and the class. May they both rest in peace. The class had twelve of its members gather for the Alumni Communion Breakfast on Laetare Sunday. Father Martin Harney, S.J., presided over the class table.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shea of Washington, D.C., acted as hosts to the Hanley and Roland families during the week of April 19. Jim attended the Superintendent's Convention while Frank and Fred went to Georgetown, and the "girls" participated in a fashion show at the Shoreham Hotel.

You have received a very fine letter from Bill O'Connor regarding class participation in the Alumni Fund with a special appeal for the new dormitory. Let's all get together and give Bill every assistance in his energetic efforts to put our class among the leaders.

Plans for the 35th Anniversary of our Commencement were given a sad set-back when our classmate, John Broughton was killed in an auto accident on May 14 when returning to his home in Stoughton. The deepest sympathy of the class is extended to Mrs. Broughton and her five children. R.I.P.

Bill "Demo" Dempsey was chairman for our Alumni Day activities and with the help of "Pop" Pyne, "Grandpa Ed" Higgins and "Grandpa Joe" Joyce, did a wonderful job in rounding up the "Forty Thieves." Thirty-five years out and the class has never missed an annual reunion.

We are anxious to establish contact with William "Jeff" Conway, Ray Champagne, Ed Gervais and Dan Breen all of whose addresses are uncertain.

We ask all of the gang to remember in their prayers, Tom Scanlan, Joe Mulligan, Tom Luby, John Broughton, Joe Degnan, Mike O'Connell, Larry Gorman, Ted Collins, Joe "Eukie" Scannell, Walter Byrnes, Joe Argy, Bill O'Halloran, Gerry Kellaher, Jim Foley, Frank Dillon, Frater George O'Donnell, S.J., Father Stephen Shea, S.J., Father Leo Burke, O.M.I., Joe Morris, Bill Power, Henry McMorro, Ralph Caouette, Pat Logue, Howard Keefe, John Donahue, Jim Morrissey and John Wardell, all of whom watched us from above on June 4.

Very Rev. LeRoy V. Cooney, Dean of Plymouth County and Pastor of St. Colman's Church, Brockton, celebrated the 30th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood, April 11.

Rev. Edmund J. Ronan has been appointed Parish Priest of St. Ann's Church Peabody.

Rev. Cletus Mulloy, C.P., has been in Alaska giving retreats to priests.

Monsignor Walter J. Furlong enjoyed a trip to Ireland recently.

Rev. John T. Powers, Jerry Mahoney, and Ed Foy attended the sessions of the Boston College Seminar.

Leo J. Callanan has retired from the U. S. Foreign Service after 31½ years of service at seventeen foreign posts and in Washington. He is now connected with the staff of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, Washington. Leo's address is 9930 Markham St., Silver Spring, Maryland.

We are pleased to know that Father James P. Donovan has recovered from his recent illness.

Morgan Ryan's boy, Morgan, Jr., is at the Maritime Academy, Buzzard's Bay.

Arthur McCarthy is a member of the lawyers' committee in charge of arrangements for the Red Mass in Philadelphia in August.

Mark Russo's daughter, Beatrice, was married to Charles G. Devine on Saturday, June 18, at St. Thomas's Church, Jamaica Plain.

1922 learned with sorrow of the death of Rev. Paul A. McNally, S.J., its former mathematics and German professor of long ago, and also of the passing of Rev. Joseph McDonnell, S.J., another one of its most beloved teachers. Father McNally was vice-president of Georgetown for 13 years; while Father McDonnell, varsity catcher at Harvard during his undergraduate days, was for many years at Weston College and with the Jesuit Mission Band... Our former freshman class president, Clement Jordan, has been happily married in California for several years... George Keefe has made his mark as a journalist in Springfield where he is one of that city's most successful writers... Walter Markham, Commissioner of Vocational Education for the Commonwealth, has returned from educational junkets to Washington, D.C. and California... Congratulations to Dennis O'Leary on the marriage of his daughter Denise to Paul Stanton of Dorchester, and congratulations, too, to Mrs. Albert Heddermon on the marriage of her daughter Ann Marie, Emmanuel '55 to Leslie Woods, '55 in June. Al Heddermon was one of BC's most loyal alumni.

Sympathy is extended to Walter Graham on the passing of his mother in May... My son, Walter graduated from the College in June, making two sons to receive degrees in the last two years. Another son, Richard, graduate of Massachusetts School of Art, was the sculptor of the John A. Ryder Bronze Plaque that has been presented to Boston College by the Jack Ryder Track Club.

'23 FRANCIS L. FORD
9 McKone Street, Dorchester

For the thirty-third consecutive year our class returned to the "Heights" on Sunday, March 20, for the annual Laetare Communion Breakfast. It was a "Family Affair" and close to 60 participated.

Father Patrick Collins, S.J. journeyed from New York to offer the Memorial holy sacrifice of the Mass at 9:45 for our seventeen beloved and departed classmates. The Mass was served by Fred McGoldrick, son of our esteemed Cece.

Adjourning to Alumni Hall for a pleasant breakfast, the class was addressed by president Walter Mayo who acted as master of ceremonies. Father Collins then told of his first year's experience on "America" and other Jesuit publications, and the progress that had been made.

The surprise treat of the morning was a talk given by Lieut. Walter Mayo, Jr., of the U.S. Army who related many interesting and humorous incidents which occurred while he was a prisoner of war in Korea for several years. His speech enlightened us on the philosophy and tactics of the Communists in that area.

Class members then introduced their lads and lassies of all ages, solos and group singing were enjoyed, and Fred McGoldrick, forgetting his acolyte assistance, gave an excellent dance imitation of his lithe father thirty years ago.

In addition to those already mentioned the following classmates were present: Dr. Len Morrissey, our vice-president; George Olesen, our class treasurer; Joe Comber, Louis Tracy, Connie O'Connell, Walter Dimmock, Miles Finnegan, Jere O'Brien, accompanied by his son, Mr. Jeremiah O'Brien, S.J., a scholastic at Boston College High School; Dr. Phil McGovern, Frank Reynolds, Joe Crane, Ben Daly, Johnnie Keyes, Tony Comerford, Ed. Garrity, and "Scriptor."

JOHN J. HANRIHAN '25

Letters of regret were read from Fr. Tom Lane, pastor of St. Ann's, West Newbury, Mass., John Flavin, and Henry Supple. The present class officers will serve for the coming year.

After serving for a quarter of a century as football coach at Dedham High School, Jack Heaphy resigned recently to become Director of Athletics at the same school. Jack has had many fine teams in his time and should be right at home in his new assignment.

Tim Tully, head of the English Department at Brighton High School, moves to Boston Latin School in the fall to share the duties of Gordon Irons, head of the English Department there. Gordon is a member of the class of 1921.

Cece McGoldrick reports the arrival of his second grandson, daughter Constance's child.

Another entry into the granddad field was Myles McSweeney whose only daughter Virginia, recently bore a son. Myles also has five boys—in high school, college, or the Service.

Our latest word from Ed Mulligan is that he is confined to Bethesda Hospital, Bethesda, Maryland. A few of us have written to him, and we pass the word along that he would like to hear from any of his classmates.

Since our last notes we learned of the passing of the mothers of Walter Dimmock and Frank Hickey. "Scriptor" was able to offer the sincere condolences of the class on both occasions. Requiescant in pace.

Our president, Walter Mayo with his worthy committee, deserves great credit for sparking the Alumni Fund Drive for the class. Finishing fourth in the amount of money contributed is an achievement that speaks well for itself. Walter is at the helm again and needs the support of every classmate. Send in your contribution at the earliest possible date and keep up our grand showing.

'24 ANTHONY E. LEBLANC

45 Maynard Street, Arlington

A testimonial dinner was held on May 21st for Joseph W. Devine, M.D. by the Boston Police Reporters Association. Joe has been a police surgeon for the Boston Police Department for the past twenty-two years.

"Syl." Connolly and his wife and Rt. Rev. Walter Furlong '21 and his sister left on May 8th for a three week tour of seventeen countries by T.W.A. "Syl" will tell us all about it at the class party on June 2nd.

James F. Grady has been named a Foreign Service Officer in the U.S. State Department. Jim, his wife and two children are living at 1635 Madison St. N. W., Washington, D.C.

Frank Kilcoyne has been home from his duties in New York and has addressed various Catholic gatherings in the vicinity of his home town.

The Class Communion Breakfast was held at the Heights on Sunday, April 17. Rev. John A. Tobin, S.J., celebrated

Mass at St. Mary's Chapel and breakfast followed at Alumni Hall. John P. Sullivan, Jamaica Plain was chairman. John is also to be commended for the fine job he did as chairman for the very enjoyable class reunion at Alumni Hall on Thursday, June 2.

'25 EDWARD J. O'LEARY

22 Bailey Road, Arlington

Classmates, wives and children, almost 200 hundred in all heard Mass and joined in breakfast on May 15 to inaugurate the observance of the thirtieth anniversary of the Class of 1925. Classmate Father Joe Doherty was the celebrant at St. Mary's Chapel on the Heights and Gene Giroux and Frank Hennessey were the acolytes. At breakfast in the Cafeteria of Lyons Hall Jack O'Keefe was Toastmaster and Monsignor "Pat" Riley was the principal speaker. The affair was chairmanned by Ralph Good who was ably assisted by a staff of excellent co-workers.

The following Sunday afternoon classmates and wives, 70 people in all, were the guests of a few classmates at a cocktail party in the Boston Club on Beacon Street, Boston. Following this most enjoyable get-together over 40 of the guests repaired to the Mahonys' beautiful home in Newton where Ruth and Fred proved to be most gracious hosts. Tref Maloney was the chairman of this delightful event.

Congratulations to Larry Brown who was recently appointed to the post of principal of Dedham High School. Larry had held the same position in the Dedham Junior High School.

Best wishes to Monsignor Ralph Gallagher on his appointment to pastor of St. Agatha's Church in Milton.

Congratulations to Fr. John Clark who not only recently celebrated his twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood but was also promoted to the position of pastor at St. Patrick's Church in South Groveland.

Father Ernest MacDonald observed his twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood on April 17 by celebrating a solemn Mass of thanksgiving in St. Peter's Church in Dorchester where he is senior curate.

We regret to report the death of John Dooley's mother, early in June. Understand that it was the first break in their fine family; our sympathy goes to John and to the family on their bereavement.

Saw the usual regulars at Alumni Day. The consensus seems to be that we are getting tired of losing ball games to the boys from Worcester. Bob O'Doherty was host again at an impromptu affair at his home, after the game, and we are deeply indebted to Dr. Robert. Over tea at Bob's, ye correspondent gleaned that Doc. Art Gorman's daughter Marjorie is newly elected president of the Student Council at Regis College. Then Bill Lyons tossed in the note that his daughter was elected president of the Student Center at the B. C. School of Education. Then the announcement that Tom Coakley is a grand-pop, his daughter being married to the nephew of Msgr. Matt Stapleton.

Then John Dorsey piped up with a blast on the Class for being delinquent in our contributions to the Dormitory Fund, not having any kids to speak about. He was serious about it, and we're serious when we urge you to drop a contribution to the College; we've always wanted dorms, so let's pitch in.

Ex-hurdler Frank Riha then chimed in with his bit; his daughter Maureen has just completed her Freshman year at School of Ed. Charlie Schroeder piped up with the fact that young Bob had just finished Freshman, too, as had young John Dooley. Dool's Anna May has completed Sophomore at School of Ed. Phil Delahunt's contribution was that he couldn't get his kid to mow the lawn! When Frank Greelish's boy finishes at the Heights, he is going to the Cornell Veterinarian School. Someone tossed in the note that Al "Zip" Zirpolo's boy Mike has just graduated from the Pre-Med course and is taking his Med. work at a California School. Do you fellows remember when these notes used to be about ourselves, instead of our kids?

Bob Daley, rightfully proud, reported that young Bob, a fine athlete, boards at the Heights in the Fall, and that he makes the third generation of Robert N. Daleys to go to Boston College. We've come a long way since Bob's dad graduated in 1891, with 19 men in the class.

I can stick in a word about my own kids, as long as the rest of them did. Young Bill was elected President of the Junior Class for the coming year, which makes the old man quite proud, and then my daughter Patricia, on June 3, made her folks grand-parents at St. Elizabeth's. She presented her husband, an officer candidate at Newport Naval, with a husky son. Now, the rest of you fellows who've been so reticent about yourselves, perhaps will now drop me a line about your children, if nothing else.

By the time you read this, we will have completed our fifth consecutive Class Outing. This time, we went to Wentworth-by-the-Sea, in Portsmouth, New Hampshire, for a week-end of golf, fun, and relaxation.

'27 JOHN J. BUCKLEY

20 Dell Avenue, Hyde Park
Father James Geary, S.J., officiated at the Annual Memorial Mass for the members of the Class of 1927 who have departed from this life, at St. Mary's Chapel, Sunday, May 15. The total of our deceased brothers is now thirty-eight. Father Jim is still at Holy Cross. Present at the breakfast that followed at Alumni Hall were Pres. Frank Sullivan, Treas. John Toomey, Henry Farley, Tom Good, Tom O'Keefe, Bil Ohrenberger, Tom Heffernan, Dave Sullivan, John Cavanaugh, Dr. John Carroll, Howie Buckley, Joe McKenney, Jim Connors, Jack Duane, Steve Bridey, Fr. Bernie Fiekers, John Eaton, Will Mannell, Pete Hickey, Jack Desmond, Vin O'Donnell, John "Revere" Sullivan, John Costello, Fred Harkins, Jack Dempsey, Dr. Dan O'Leary, Walter Waldron, Tom Coughlin, Joe Ingoldsby, Bill Murphy, Norris Luddy, and Jack Buckley.

The Class extends deep sympathy to Jim Connors who recently lost his father.

Dr. Dan O'Leary, President of Lowell State Teachers College, is serving on the council of an organization made up of the presidents and deans of the colleges and universities of the state. Dan will spend six weeks in Germany this summer getting material for his many lecture engagements throughout New England.

Jack Duane has been for some years connected with the Newton Police Department.

Tom Good is with the Federal Division of Employment Security.

Another of Joe McKenney's daughters will be married in July. To keep pace with his close friend of many years, Bill Ohrenberger announced that his son will be married in June.

The Class offers its heartfelt sympathy to Joe Hopkinson on the untimely death of his wife. Joe is Head of the Latin Department of Boston Latin School.

'28 LLOYD L. DOYLE

46 Hecla St., Dorchester
Wallace E. Carroll, '28, recently appointed to the board of trustees of DePaul University, Chicago. He is president of the American Gage & Machine Co., and subsidiary firms, and resides in Lake Forest, Illinois with his wife and four children.

Dr. Fred L. Campbell died at his home in Brighton on April 11. He was a Tufts Medical graduate and founder and president-elect of the Massachusetts Academy of General Practitioners. Fred leaves his wife and four children to whom we extend our sincere sympathy. At his funeral 25 members of the class acted as honorary pallbearers, and Rev. Joseph Donahue was the celebrant of the Solemn High Mass at St. Columbkille's.

Tom Gemelli, who has been High Chief Ranger of the M.C.O.F., was tendered a testimonial dinner by the members of that organization on April 20.

Dick Condon—the veep of the class—was appointed to another five year term as a trustee of the Boston City Hospital by Mayor Hynes. An arduous civic duty well recognized.

You will note how rapidly the mail has been flowing from the Alumni office. Frank Murphy was recently appointed superintendent of the Chestnut Hill P.O. Several classmates have made the news recently—Bernie McCabe drum-beating as the president of the Friends of McCarthy Association; Victor Newton, editorial writer-various articles in the Boston Post; Neil Scanlon—judge of the Boston American High School Educational program; Commissioner Patrick Tompkins—one of the first proponents of free Salk vaccine; an extensive editorial in the Italian News on Doctor John Andosca.

Dan Driscoll and Charlie Driscoll have been working very hard on the Alumni Fund drive. Make use of that gold envelope that has been sent to you.

John Martin has been appointed principal of Weymouth Junior High School. Happy vacation time. Have fun.

'29 JOHN J. SPENCER

527 Broadway, South Boston
The sympathy of the class is sincerely extended to the family of our late classmate, John J. B. Barnwell, whose untimely death in California, where he was engaged in the practice of law.

Deepest sympathy also to the families of Bernie Kilroy and Ed Fraher. Ed died during the Christmas season and Bernie passed away on June 1 after fighting a game but losing battle for weeks.

Our sympathy likewise is extended to Drs. Kenneth Brown and William Flynn, who have suffered family losses.

Ed Wessling has been elected assistant treasurer of the Second Bank-State Street Trust.

Very Rev. Leo O'Keefe, S.J., rector of Campion Hall, is in increasing demand as a speaker before civic and church groups.

Attorney Ed Lee, prominent behind the scenes of many recent political campaigns has been named by the Gazette del Mass., Italo-American newspaper, as a dark-horse candidate for Mayor of Boston.

Father John Frawley, assistant at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross since 1952, has been named administrator there by Archbishop Cushing. Father Frank McDonnell is doing an excellent job as head of the diocesan labor movement. Father Ed Hogan, S.J., like Father Frawley a former Brockton resident, is now professor of religion and philosophy and student counsellor at Notre Dame University. Father has been loaned to Notre Dame for one year by the Jesuit Order.

Best wishes to John Mahoney on the opening of his law office at 31 State Street, Boston.

'30 JOHN F. DWYER 45 Belvoir Road, Milton

The Class Spring Dinner Dance at Wollaston Golf Club April 21st was enjoyed by a moderate number of our classmates and their wives. The dinner and music arranged by Chairman Tom Kelly combined to make the evening a memorable one.

Class Family Day held at the Heights, Saturday, May 28th set a new high for attendance. It was an inspiring sight to see our group of over 200 including classmates, their wives, sons and daughters attend Mass, celebrated by Reverend John W. Ryan, S.J. and receive Holy Communion. Ted Hoppe and Charlie Murphy served the Mass.

Toastmast at the breakfast was our capable General Chairman of Family Day, Dr. William F. Sullivan. Speaking briefly were Fr. Francis V. Sullivan, S.J., Fr. John W. Ryan, S.J., the General Chairman of our 25th Reunion, Judge John J. Connelly; Class Agent John W. Haverty and Class President John Dwyer. After breakfast the parents of '30 conducted the future students of Boston College on a tour of the new and old buildings at the Heights. Pictures of family groups were taken by John Dooley and by numerous amateur photographers. Next we adjourned to Alumni Field for a complete program for the young folks. Ponies were given a good workout by the sons and daughters of '30. The musical merry-go-round was kept whirling. Hot weiners, sandwiches, ice cream, tonic and milk were served under the massive elm tree on Alumni Field. A full program of foot races and other games kept the young folks on their toes. Prizes were awarded to each family group. The teen agers nine beat their dads in a one inning game aided and abetted by Judge Connelly, calling the strikes.

Thence to Alumni Hall where the teen-agers held a record hop and the rest of us quaffed cokes. A good time was had by all.

The Class is indebted to the Chairman of the Day, Dr. Bill Sullivan, Frank McNulty in charge of reservations; General Chairman John Connelly; Class Agent John Haverty; Tom Kelly in charge of prizes; Al McCarthy and John Convery in charge of games;

Bill Syran and Irving Stackpole for their work in making family day such a success. A special vote of thanks is extended to Frank Tallino who made complete arrangements for the Communion Breakfast and for all refreshments served throughout the day. The following classmates enjoyed the festivities with their families: Lawrence F. Carew, Thomas Cavanaugh, M.D., John J. Convery, Hon. John J. Connelly, Ned Donovan, John Dwyer, Frank Geary, John Grandfield, John Gillooly, John Groden, John Haverty, Joe Kelley, Tom Kelly, Mat Kenney, Ted Hoppe, Arthur Heaphy, Francis Higgins, M.D., John Hurley, Tom Killion, Jim Langan, Fred Lyons, J. J. McCarthy, C. A. McCarthy F. McNulty, John McSweeney, John Magner, John Merrick, Joseph Mirley, Jim Mulligan, Charlie Murphy, Bill McDonald, William O'Connor, M.D., Edward O'Neil, Roger O'Sullivan, Tom Perkins, Charles Rooney, M.D., James Reagan, William J. Sullivan, M.D., Garrett Sullivan, M.D., Irving Stackpole, Bill Syran, Frank Tallino, Bill Tracy. Mr. and Mrs. John Merrick, accompanied by three sons journeyed from Enfield, Connecticut to renew acquaintances.

Rev. Walter Mullally, Director of Public Relations at St. Anselms College, was on hand for the day, along with Fathers John Ryan and Ed Donlan. The three musketeers of old, Ned Donovan and Bill Tracy of Salem and Art Heaphy of Dover, New Hampshire enjoyed the day with their wives, sons and daughters.

One of our most distinguished classmates, Edward Hogan, a Vice-Dean of the Hastings Law School of the University of California was honored by Alma Mater by the conferring of the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws at Commencement Exercises June 6th. Ed has been a militant leader in the establishment of Boston College Clubs of California.

Congratulations to Thomas Kelly upon his election as Vice-President of the Better Homes Club Plan of Cambridge.

Congratulations to Francis X. Bradley who was married to Mary C. Chaisson at St. Catherine's Church in Norwood on April 30th. After a wedding trip to Bermuda the Bradleys took residence at 109 Oakton Avenue, Dorchester.

Judge John J. Connelly was awarded the sixth Annual Gold Medal for distinguished service to youth by the Boston Kiwanis Club at a testimonial luncheon at the Hotel Touraine on May 12th. A sizeable group attended representing the Varsity Club and the Class of 1930.

John B. Gillooly, feature sports writer of the Boston Daily Record, received a citation for his feature article on the Blind Golfers' Tournament at Worcester, Mass. Bud's article was included in the "Best Sports Stories of 1954" published by E. P. Dutton.

'31 JOHN P. BARRY 370 Chestnut Hill Ave., Brookl.

Alumni Day brought what has become the traditional gathering of the class of '31 at St. Sebastian's where Monsignor Charles Flanagan was genial host to 35 members of the class. Among those present to enjoy an excellent luncheon were Monsignor George Mason from Circleville, Ohio; Fathers Joe Barrett, S.J., and Jim Larkin, S.J., from Fairfield University. Father Larkin apparently flourishes in the heat of Baghdad to judge from his appearance and enthusiasm. President Dick Fitzpatrick outlined activities for our 25th Anniversary year. The program includes a Ladies' Night in October; a dinner meeting during the winter, with the Family Communion Breakfast and a Benediction and Tea in the spring. There will also be an outing during the graduation season of 1956.

Tom Crosby gave a brief talk on Alumni Fund and there will be more details in the mail later, on coming events and the class gift participation.

About 130 members and their families attended the Family Communion Breakfast at which Father Frank Meehan was the guest speaker.

Have you heard that Henry Leen has four daughters, and that the Kevin Herns are the proud parents of their first child, a daughter, Ellen Caden, born on March 26. Congratulations.

Jerome Doyle's father, John B. Doyle, '99, practicing New York attorney, was the recipient of the William V. McKenney Medal, annual Alumni award presented on Alumni Day.

'32 JOHN P. CONNOR 24 Crestwood Circle, Norwood

The prayers of the class are asked for the repose of the soul of our late beloved classmate, "Barney" Curtin who recently passed away after a prolonged illness. "Barney" for the last 17 years was baseball coach at Somerville High School, and during that time his team

Bill Cogan has been appointed Foreman of the Carrier Division at the Woburn Post Office.

Frank Liddell will open his new Tower Ranch Day Camp in Westwood.

Roy Lynch is a Special Agent with the U. S. Treasury Department, Intelligence Unit, assigned to the Boston Office.

Paul Dwyer is a Public Accountant and Tax Consultant in Waltham.

Ralph Whelan is Executive Director of the Youth Division of New York City. He was recently the feature speaker at the Massachusetts Attorney General's conference on teen-age problems in John Hancock Hall.

Fr. Ed O'Keefe is Pastor of St. Mary's Parish in Alpha, New Jersey.

Walter Sullivan is practicing law in Framingham.

Tim McDonough is a Field Investigator with the Massachusetts Division of Employment Security.

Dr. John Henry Griffin is practicing in Hughesville, Maryland, and is the proud pappy of eight children.

Ralph Ambrose is Principal of the Wildwood School in Wilmington, Mass.

Don Shannon and Clem O'Brien are with the Boston Office of the F.B.I.

John Power is acquiring quite a reputation as an after chow speaker.

Congratulations to Frank Good as chairman of our very successful 20th anniversary dinner held last month in Alumni Hall.

Bill Sweeney is Chief Probation Officer at Waltham District Court. Bill is doing right well in the progeny sweepstakes, being the father of seven, the latest twin girls.

Charles J. Richardson, '36, Wellesley Hills, is the newly elected president of the Waldorf System Inc., and its affiliated companies. He is married and the father of three children.

'36 JOSEPH P. KEATING 24 High Street, Natick

Monsignore Larry Riley continues to gain honors and was the principal speaker at the Alumni Communion Breakfast in March. He, I would say, is undoubtedly one of '36's outstanding men. We would love to have seen the expression on Monsignore Ed Lawton's face as he tested the food served him in Nigeria—which he actually likes according to a recent article in the Boston Globe. In case you haven't heard, Ed is Prefect Apostolic of the diocese of Sokoto in northwest Nigeria. Joe King has been promoted to Assistant professor in History and Government at the Heights.

Ex-president Tom Mahoney is soon to have published a treatise on "Edmund Burke and Ireland." Congratulations are in order to Charlie Richardson on his recent promotion to President of the Waldorf system; also, to Bob Cahill who has been appointed Executive Director to the Newton Community Chest. Fred Roach, ex-president of the Class, was seriously hurt in an automobile accident early in June and is now on the road to recovery. Tom Brennan is a recent visitor to Washington where he and Congressman Tip O'Neil made the rounds of the city. Father Navien is now stationed at St. Joseph's in Boston's west end after one year in Utah under the Archbishop's lend-lease program.

'37 BENEDICT T. HINES 16 Hemlock Drive, Natick

Class President Ed Phillips was kept so busy directing Luckenback ships in and out of Boston Harbor he was strapped for time in readying a June class meeting. However, Ed is looking forward to a Fall gathering of members, wives and girl friends.

Albert J. Sullivan, our esteemed activities editor on the Sub Turri staff and constant companion of John Bonner, is mainly responsible for the correct spelling of your name in the NEWS. Our Al is associate editor.

You'd think running down a giant like Andy Dominick would be an easy matter. We do know however, that his new address is 45 Chestnut Street, Manchester, N. H.

George Lynch has the Tetley Tea trade tied up completely on the local market and we've got 100 (gift) bags to prove it. Thanks, George.

Richard Cruise, carrying about 50 pounds more than the days of his Salem cruises, caused quite a stir at the recent Hotel and Restaurant Show in Boston with his Rock Cornish hens out of Pomfret, Conn. Dick was fairly pestered for samples. Boy, were they tasty.

Tilly Ferdenzi kept his promise for more news for this edition. Mr. and Mrs. Atilio Ferdenzi of Floral Park, Long Island, N.Y. and late of Ashland, Mass., are rejoicing over the birth of their first child. Dad has an added duty, too. He's traveling with the New York Yankees for the New York Journal American, according to The Sporting News.

George F. McGunnigle, special agent for the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company of Milwaukee, Wis., is also assistant to the general agent at Hartford, Conn. George has three boys. The oldest, George, is slated for Fairfield University Prep in September, where Father Ed Fayne, a Heights staffer in '37, is assistant principal. Active George is Grand Knight of Hartford Council No. 11 and launched the Catholic Speakers Bureau in that city.

Morris Blitz, the wrestling bull of yesteryear, is Director of Guidance Services for Normandy School District in St. Louis and resides with his wife, Evelyn, and two boys, Bob and Phil, at 761 Westgate, University City 5, Mo. The Bull also coaches wrestling and is referee at Illinois and Missouri college matches. He keeps in touch with Joe "Bald Eagle" Walsh and Father "Pac-ky" Nolan for news from this front.

Bill Huxley is the new Class Agent and all he's asking of us is maximum representation in the current Alumni Fund. Lets get behind him.

Thomas A. Saint is lensed frequently by the press. Latest pix on Tom had him boarding a plane to a New York resort after capturing a sales contest. Tom is general sales manager for Wahn Distributors.

The Very Rev. Robert J. Sennott, Chancellor of the archdiocese of Boston, is becoming a popular speaker at distinguished occasions.

James T. McCorry is a star representative for Fulton Packing in Boston.

Al Flahive continues to give you that accurate weather report over WHDH.

Fred Gorgone, Jr., our dapper dan, is now the conservative school principal in Needham, we understand.

Alex Pszeny, the Salem restaurateur, is the new line coach in that city's high school, which is also his own.

Joe Fleming certainly can provide that needed nip of a lift these hot days.

"Jocko" and Marguerite Conlon proudly present tiny daughter Marguerite, who will be one year old this June.

Ted Glynn, Jocko, Vin Dunphy, Peter Murphy, Eric Stenholm, John "Fuzzer" Fitzgerald and Victor DeRubeis were seen at the Laetare Communion breakfast. Others were there, of course, from '37, for the holy event was heavily attended.

Vin Dunphy, an English major and capable sports scribe, turns out to be a slightly heavier gentleman than the runner of our day, and a wizard of a teacher right here at Boston College Business School. The Dunphy's, with six children, reside in Braintree.

Donald Nyhen, the airline executive, is becoming just that through long hours at his Park Square headquarters.

Won't you keep your classmates informed of your successes by writing now to your correspondent at 16 Hemlock Drive, Natick, Mass.

Lieut. Col. John King writes from Bangkok, Thailand, where he is director of logistics for the JUSMAG (Joint U.S. Military Advisory Group), that he has met many of the alumni in his travels. Junie's family—wife (Geraldie Wyman, Regis '40) and their four children were living in Thailand with him but the heat was too much for them and they had to return to this country. He asks to be remembered to all the members of our class, especially his old buddies Jim O'Hare and Bud Davis. His address is Box "B", APO 74, c/o Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif. Jack Crowley, a Lieut. Col. in the Army Transportation Corps, is living in Williamsburg, Virginia, with his wife and their three children. Jack is also married to an ex-Regis gal.

ni Day. Frank Stapleton, Jim O'Hare, Bob Curtis, Frank Toomey and class president Jim O'Donoghue served on the class committee for the arrangements for Alumni Day.

Kev Sullivan is now living in Ohio where he is director of training for a large rubber company. Kev reports the arrival of his son, E. Mark, III. One of the most loyal members of the class, Jack (Cambridge) Gateley was on hand for Alumni Day festivities. Ed Cady is a faithful attendant at Catholic Alumni Sodality. Father Frank Sexton celebrates Mass at St. Clement's Shrine almost every month for the Nocturnal Adoration Society.

Rev. Larry Mullin gave his support to the B. C. cause by his presence at the ball game up in Worcester on Memorial Day. According to a report of the Alumni Fund, the average contribution from members of our class is almost $40. This was early in the Drive when we had only 19 contributors. Our class agent Bob Callahan is largely responsible for this creditable showing. Let's keep up that average. Dr. Phil Marco was unable to attend Alumni Day this year due to a previous "engagement." On June 1, Phil married Marguerite Barbaso of Minneapolis, Minn. John T. McNulty has been appointed a special agent of the Central Mutual Insurance Co., in Metropolitan Boston.

Class officers for the upcoming 17th anniversary class are Pres., Peter Kerr, V-Pres., Paul Needham, Sec.-Treas., as usual. Paul is active in other areas also, Pres. of the Lawrence Academy Alumni and Lt.-Cmdr. in the Naval Reserve. More Thirty-Niners on the move in Alumni outpost are Jim Lynch, Pres. of the Haverhill BC Club; Holy Cross Registrar Fred Norton and Dr. Fred McCready in the Worcester BC Club; Herb Chernack of the Chicago Club, and Miami insurance magnate George Farrell of the newly organized BC Club of Florida.

Joe Tuscher, personnel director of William Carter Co., Springfield, Mass. by way of Ohio State, Northeastern U. and BC Grad School has been lecturing on "Communications as a Management Technique" before executive seminars. This issue's automotive item lists Nelson Erickson in the Sales Department of our local GMC (that's trucks) Factory Branch. John J. Kelley, ex-Cambridge, notes Ambler, Pa., as his domicile and Gen. Manager as his job-title.

Retiring Class President John J. Flynn, III, recently disclosed the seventh addition to his organization: Score 4-3, boys. George Fallon has received his degree from the Law School. The engagement of Miss Joan Pullman of Medford, Mass. to Sig Somy has been announced.

Larry Fitzgerald succeeds Pete Kerr as Class Agent for the Alumni Fund. Larry points out that if those of us Thirty-Niners who answered the call last year, but haven't as yet this year,

First off, News on the Alumni Fund. Certain members of our class are trying to get in touch with those lagging on their alumni contributions. Help them out, by sending yours in. Give what you can, as often as you can for an even greater Boston College.

The Enterprise of Falmouth recently published a picture of president John Buckley, wholesale shoe salesman, and now the new owner of the Vose Furniture Store on Main Street, Falmouth. Good luck, John.

Among the married; Ray Grady and Joan Dwyer of Regis, were married in Newport, Rhode Island; Donald Cataldo and Joan Marie Jewett of Franklin, Mass.; and last Sept. Paul Doucette was married to Marian Mooglian of Hopewell, Virginia.

Those engaged include: Jim Cox and Mary Dice of Colonial Heights, Virginia; Bill Kane, now an FBI Agent, to Elizabeth Fanelli of New Rochelle, New York; Leo Delory to Regis Alumna Jeanne Marie Bowen of Wakefield; Bill Greene of the Grad School to Shirley Jones of Old Orchard Beach, Maine, and Eugene McAuliffe to Nancy Blankinship of Belmont.

The Round-Up: A letter from Paul Doucette squared me away on things down in Ole Virginny. Paul wants to know where he can locate Henry Eks-terowicz and Hugh Campbell. Write Paul at 802 Monticello Drive, Hopewell, Virginia. Paul says Bob Levins is down there and still single. The Roger Connors have been blessed with a junior—whose father claims he's the best ever! Joe McArdle has just finished the Army's Med Service School at Ft. Sam Houston, Texas.

Among the CBA men: Bob Freeley was married on June 4 to Eileen Sheets—his partner in Staples Gift Shop. Rev. Francis B. McManus, S.J., CBA Dean of Men, performed the ceremony, and Tom Cane was an usher.

Contemplating tying the knot: Bill Gauthier and Frances Ferris of Springfield. Bill is a junior engineer in the Engineering Department of the Hamilton Standard Division of United Aircraft Corp., in Connecticut. Still interested in basketball, he played 90 games this winter... Peter Quinn and Miss Charlotte Colbert... Stan Kust-ron and Miss Margery Coyne... Bob Doherty and Miss Lynn Perry... Dick Griffiths and Miss Martha Arnold... Likewise comes the news this time of the year of those who have already taken the big step... Dick McBride married Sarah Bidwell in London, Eng-land recently... Paul Roche and Bar-bara Manning were married in Allston, Mass... Charlie McNamee and Marie Casey exchanged vows in Winchester... Frank O'Hearn married Ann Cahill of Newton, spending their honeymoon at Sea Island, Georgia... up in Spring-field, Frank Canning married Margaret Fenton, Frank is now employed by the Springfield Fire and Marine Insurance Company in Providence as a special agent... Paul Clinton has been ap-pointed to replace Frank O'Hearn as Class Agent, Frank giving up the job because of business demands... good luck Paul, they couldn't have picked a better man... incidentally Paul and Kathy have just welcomed their latest addition, a boy!... Tom Scanlon is working with Sears & Roebuck in Cam-bridge... Jim Kenealy with Schlitz Brewing Co... Elmer Zirkel is now at Kennedy and will enter pre-dental work at the Heights... they tell me that Charlie Brown has acquired a controll-ing interest in some place called the Arbeiter Club... Bill Dillon eaves-dropping for the C.I.A. in Washington, D.C... What was Roger Devaney's re-action when Prof. Clinton walked into the class?... Lt. and Mrs. Charles Brown welcomed a seven pound boy in-to the family in Germany last March... Gruss Gott!... Back here at the Heights Charlie Barrett, Dick Spillane and yours truly are winding up studies at the Law School... I have accepted a fellowship to Georgetown University Law School for the next academic year. Charlie led the class again but is un-decided as to the immediate future... Dick is heading for the Navy O.C.S. Heard from Lt. Gerry Kirklighter re-cently and is now stationed at Fort Bragg, N.C. after completing a tour of duty in Korea... Gerry sends his best to all the gang.

Good wishes to all for a pleasant summer.

COSGROVE'S

One glass will tell you this is a superior milk. Every drop is "creamy" tasting, smoother. Children and grownups alike enjoy drinking Cosgrove's.

If you live in Dorchester, Roxbury, South Boston, Jamaica Plain, Roslindale, West Roxbury, Milton, or Quincy, we would be very pleased to take care of your dairy requirements, either retail or wholesale.

Larry Maloney is now stationed outside of Washington, D.C. with the ASA. The latest reports show that Don McCusker will be getting married the first week in August following his release from the Army. Jack Beaver did, on or about April 21 wed a Miss Jean Casey of Stoneham. They are to reside on Beacon St. Sometime in September Tom Aglio will wed Margaret Mary Cronin of Hyde Park. Out in Waltham last March, Cliff Poirier and Anita Mobilia exchanged marriage vows. Ann Mary O'Malley and Fred Dominick were married in May and honeymooned in Bermuda. Ed Early and Theresa Molloy married in February. Ed is now aboard the USS Hailey.

The other big subject for discussion is who is where and why. Well here is what we can find out. Frank Stapleton, still at New London, Conn. will finish his tour in about three or four months. Then back to Boston for the Stapletons—all four of them. Willy Dunn was recently commissioned at Ft. Benning, Ga.

Jim Donovan is with the Army at Ft. Hood, Texas. Bill Leary should be finished his basic training by now. Bill received his Masters from Mass. State Teacher's college before he went into the Army. Last we heard of Paul Goodwin he was touring the Med. How lucky can you get. Speaking of luck Tom Smith is in Washington, D.C. What a place to be stationed. (Please excuse the personal note: Tom drop me a line, I get to D.C. a lot and would like to get together. Frank) Jack Keating is stationed in Manchester, N.H. He was recently promoted to First Lieutenant. Here's a bit of news: Harry Connolly broke the hammer throwing record at MIT in May. He heaved the weapon 202 ft., 3 and 3/8 inches.

Your CBA correspondent, Public Accountant at Leonard Atkins & Co., Accountants and Auditors, located in the Statler Office Building has announced his candidacy for the School Committee Board of the Public Schools in the City of Revere.

Cpl. Joseph W. Odum, after serving in Korea for almost a year has recently been sent to Japan. At Fort Harrison, he attended their school of finance and has been working in that capacity ever since.

Lt. Robert L. Brawley of West Roxbury was recently promoted to 1st Lt. He is executive officer of Battery A, 337th Field Artillery Battalion at Camp Rucker, Ala.

Learning new combat methods at Fort Benning, Ga. with the 3rd Infantry Division is Lt. Algimantos A. Ivaska.

Cpl. Paul B. Colgan stationed at Fort Riley, Kan. is slated to participate in Exercise Apple Jack. Apple Jack will test the efficiency of infantry and support units in mountainous and desert terrain.

Paul F. Printon was adjudged the winner of the Moot Court finals at Boston College Law School and will represent that school in the Moot Court national finals in New York City next December.

Barbara Burnes recently wed Gerald Boyle of Woburn at a ceremony performed by the bridegroom's brother.

Patricia A. Callahan became engaged recently to Lt. Richard F. Keelan, Jr. of Dedham who is presently on active duty with the Army.

Anne Katherine McGovern and Richard Lenox who is now serving in the Army became engaged recently.

Jeremiah Toomey, Credit Manager of General Discount Corp. of Boston is doing a great job.

James A. Lynch, Jr. associate of Union Mutual Life Insurance Co., 80 Federal Street is our class' foremost authority on Life, Accident and Health Insurance.

Peter Gianino and his wife are now living at 9 Green Street, Melrose. They are building a home in Melrose.

'54 JOHN J. CURTIN, JR.
24 Laurel Lane, Dedham

A look at the activities of the ever active class of 1954 shows that we have been getting engaged and married, adding to the population, defending the nation and climbing rungs on the ladder of a successful career.

John Smallcomb, whose engagement was announced to Muried Pistey, is studying at St. Louis University School of Dentistry. Occidental travelers include Lt. Mario Simeola and his bride, the former Viola Corindia who are living in Japan. It's a daughter, Ann Elizabeth, for June and Ray MacPherson.

Al Byrnes who is on the faculty at B.C. and working for his Master of Arts is engaged to Kathleen Tuohy. Wedding plans are also being made by Clare Burke and Ed Zymijewski; Jean Marie Price and John Kohr; Marjorie O'Neill and Leo I. Walker.

The B.C. Club of Germany includes Brendan Horrigan, Thomas Matthews, William McCarthy, John Butchko, John Ford, Thomas Fitzgerald, Thomas Dooling, Kevin Lane, Paul Heffernan, Dan Sullivan, Jim Cotter, Robert Jones, Phil Di Tullio.

"Iggy" Fiorenza is attending St. Louis University School of Dentistry.

Living far from the "tower on the Heights" are Lt. and Mrs. Paul McGee (Catherine Foley) who are living in Virginia and Lt. and Mrs. Frank Cruise (Patricia Bellini) who have been seen around North Carolina. Lt. and Mrs. George McDevitt (Beatrice Sullivan) are at Fort Ord, California, and Lt. and Mrs. Richard Finnegan, Jr. (Ann Marie Good) have set up housekeeping in sunny Florida.

This news slipped by your class correspondent when he was preparing the last article. In case you haven't heard, the following B.C. men were married between Oct. 1 and January 1: Anthony Daukas and Mary Lynette Strovink; Richard McEachern and Ann Marie Hooper; Daniel Miley and Margaret Cahill; Richard Foley and Loretta Wilson.

Many of our classmates, now serving with Uncle Sam, have written to tell us where they are and what they are doing. From some of these letters we have learned that Jack McNeice is in Austria holding down an "important government position." Leo Maguire and Don Clougherty, recently commissioned second lieutenants in the Marine Corps are now undergoing a five month basic course at the Marine Corps School at Quantico, Virginia. At last report, Jim Haynes was stationed in Okinawa; Bill McCarthy and John Driscoll, Jr. were at Fort Holabird, Maryland, Francis Russo was in Korea and Ed Keating was stationed in New York.

The eyes and ears of the world have garnered this information. Lt. Tim Quinlan and Joan Quinn will marry soon and live near Camp Pendleton, California. Bill Maguire, currently stationed in France, and Evelyn Burke have announced their engagement. Paul O'Brien and Mary Riley were married in April. Jane Hughes and Lt. Leo Waible are married. Joan Dacey and Sgt. Charles Doherty are planning a July wedding. Mary Ann Tierney and Lt. Gerald Power have announced their engagement. Jerry by the way, is in flight training at Pensacola.

Also recently married were Margaret Morton and Lawrence Brennan, Jo-Ann Connell and Charles McGeown, Patricia Laetsch and Robert LeSaffre, Louise Murphy and Alan Devaney.

Francis (Harry) Harrington, for quite some time the only B.C. grad stationed in Puerto Rico has recently been joined by Roger McCarthy and Roger's bride, the former Mary McDonough.

Paul Aris is at the Signal Corps School, Fort Monmouth, New Jersey. His engagement was recently announced.

After four years as undergraduates we have reached the long sought after status of alumni. Through those years on the Heights, the class of '55 has been many times publicly noted as a class that "sticks together". During this new phase of our life let us try to keep it that way. Many will soon be in the service, and others will take out-of-state jobs. It would be to our mutual advantage therefore, if you could notify either this writer or the alumni office of any change of address.

Those who have announced betrothment include Jim Kane and Walter Callahan.

Tom Shack plans to attend Harvard next year to study the Russian language. He claims the State Department is anxiously awaiting his arrival.

Bill Tiernan won a part-scholarship to the Graduate School of B.C., and his buddy Bob Simmler will attend Georgetown Law.

Of course all those who received their bars on June 8th will soon be on vacation at Fort Sill.

Best wishes to Jim Nolan, Ensign, USNR. Jim certainly looked great at the Commencement Ball.

Jim Hayes and Paul Clausen will work with Sperry Gyroscope in New York, and Dick Ghidella will soon be with Curtis Wright Aircraft in Connecticut.

Phil Doherty will further his education at Babson Institute, and Dick Renahan will no doubt make good use of his scholarship to B.C. Law School.

President Dick Drew and Art McCarthy have jobs with Tel. and Tel. Art will work in Boston, and Dick will be in Connecticut.

Though upwards of thirty graduates have been selected for O.C.S. I know four who are definite for Newport, R.I., Dick Hanewich, Gene McCabe, Dick Olsen, and this writer.

Many of the current class of CBA men are planning to take the big step: Joe Cunningham will marry Mary Anne Mirabella of Somerville on September 3. He is employed by For at Highland Park, Michigan. Joining the married set in the near future are Don Halloran, Joe Bouchard, Bill Wright and Bill Brown.

Congratulations to the Harry Wittenburgers on their new arrival.

Weddings in June for Walter Grover and Ruth Casey, Malden; John Crane and Dorothy Borgue.

We also heard that Dan Hanlon is a benedict.

LAW SCHOOL

William J. McCarthy, '52
92 Gordon Street, Brighton

We are all very much pleased with the first Publication of the Law School, the "Annual Survey of Massachusetts Law." Assistant Professor William J. Curran, class of 1950, Editor-in-chief, should be especially commended for his energetic and inspiring leadership in supervising the Board of Student Editors and in selecting the able contributors from law school faculties and from the practicing Bar.

3,500 Reputation Tests

American newspapers lay their reputations on the line hundreds of times every day—

There are from 200 to 500 different news items in a single issue of a U. S. daily.

Whether it rates a big headline or a small one, each of these items must meet the same high standards of freshness, honesty, accuracy and reader interest.

At A&P, the policy that applies to the news Americans read also applies to the food they eat—

In an A&P Super Market there are more than 3,500 different items of food.

Before we put any of these items on our shelves we ask ourselves—Is it fresh? Is the quality high? Is it honestly and accurately represented? Will it satisfy our customers' need? And is the price as low as we can make it through efficient and economic handling?

The record shows that, whether a business deals in facts or in food, this is the best kind of policy to have. It wins public faith for a newspaper or a food store; and it keeps Americans the best informed, best fed people on earth.
